Have you made your skincare resolution for 2010? These new anti-wrinkle products should help make the process smoother.

Murad's Active Radiance serum (HK$1,298/30ml) is said to firm skin by up to 64 per cent in 15 minutes using ultra-high levels of stabilised vitamin C, alpha hydroxyl acids and myrtle extract. Available at Elemis Day Spa, 9/F, Century Square, 1 D'Aguilar Street, Central, tel: 2521 6660.

Malin and Goetz's replenishing face cream (HK$590/30ml) uses fatty acid absorption technology to help build collagen and restore damaged complexions. Available at Lane Crawford stores; www.lanecrawford.com.

Chanel's Ultra Correction Line Repair eye cream (HK$660/15ml) aims to correct wrinkles by reversing glycation, which reduces skin elasticity, through the use of botanical active ingredient Bay Cedar PFA. Available at all Chanel counters.

StriVectin's Overnight Facial Resurfacing serum (HK$650/25ml) contains its trademark ingredients of exfolactive, willowherb and whitonyl alongside willowbark. The paraben-free concentrate works as you sleep to smooth and brighten dull skin. Available at Lane Crawford.
